Greetings: This letter is for (Hakeem El Bey). It has been requested of the Aboriginal Republic of North America Government/ International Indigenous Society Choctaw/Cherokee Tribe to present Treaty Evidence of Non-Tax liability for Nationals of Our Tribe.

The Treaty of Camp Holmes 1836 Article 3 Indemnification by United States for loss of Property of Indigenous Peoples

The Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek 1830

Article 4. Autonomy of the Aboriginal Choctaw Nation and descendants to be secured from laws of U.S. states and territories

United States Code Title 8 Section 1401 Clause (b)

The following shall be nationals and citizens of the United States at birth

(b) a person born in the United States to a member of an Indian, Eskimo, Aleutian, or other aboriginal tribe: Provided, That the granting of citizenship under this subsection shall not in any manner impair or otherwise affect the right of such person to tribal or other property.

United States Constitution Article I section 2 clause 3 Indigenous Americans exempt from taxes 14th amendment clause 2

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. (Properly and lawfully termed Indigenous Peoples)

In this case Nationals/Citizens of our Tribes retain their right to all of their Property including their compensation for labor which is also exempted in the United States Constitution as shown above. Our formal procedure to insure non tax liability in the past has been to send an official letter from our Tribe to the respective business and evidence of our status with authentication notices to and from the United States Department of State. Below is other case law that supports our Treaties with the United States.

Thus, treaties must be interpreted as the Indians would have understood them at the time they were made

United States v. Winans, 198 US (1908)

- 1) treaties as the law of the land pursuant to the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution [Article VI] as codified in USC Title 25 Section 71 [no obligation of any treaty lawfully made and ratified with any such Indian nation or tribe prior to March 3, 1871, shall be hereby invalidated or impaired]
- 2) Title 25 USC Section 1322 Assumption by State of Civil Jurisdiction

(b) Alienation, encumbrance, taxation, use, and probate of property

Nothing in this section shall authorize the alienation, encumbrance, or taxation of any real or personal property, including water rights, belonging to any Indian or any Indian tribe, band, or community that is held in trust by the United States or is subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States; or shall authorize regulation of the use of such property in a manner inconsistent with any Federal treaty, agreement, or statute, or with any regulation made pursuant thereto; or shall confer jurisdiction upon the State to adjudicate, in probate proceedings or otherwise, the ownership or right to possession of such property or any interest therein.

Notice of Constitutional Non Tax Liability for Indigenous Americans

Greetings: (United States Postal Service)

This letter is to notify your office that a member of our Aboriginal Indigenous tribe is presently accessing their Natural Right guaranteed by the United States Constitution and Treaties to be classified as having No Tax Liability on Compensation for Labor. This Tax Exemption is a right and is protected by the Constitution of the United States of America and Supreme Court Decisions. Our Tribe acts as the Official and sole Tax Fiduciaries for our Indigenous nationals pursuant to Form 56 [attached]

Native Americans cannot be terminated from labor or not paid for accessing this right [Discrimination based on National origin [See Department of Justice 1-9 Form Employment eligibility] and contractual compensation must be provided for all time that is given in labor.

- The Federal government provides alternative legal recourse for peoples who fall under this status. This information is provided herein:
- International Law at the United Nations Declaration of the rights of Indigenous Peoples UN 61/295 and the Organization of American States Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples are herein incorporated

Constitutional Exemption for Indigenous Peoples [Native Americans]

14th Amendment Section 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed. (Property and lawfully termed Indigenous Peoples)

Supreme Court Case decisions that state Income and Compensation for Labor are not the same

- Stapler v U.S., 21 F Supp 737 AT 739 (1937) "Income within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment and the Revenue Act, means 'gain'... and in such connection 'Gain' means profit.. proceeding from property, severed from capital, however invested or employed, and coming in, received, or drawn by the taxpayer, for his separate use, benefit and disposal... Income is not a wage or compensation for any type of labor."

• Oliver v. Halstead 86 S.E. Rep 2nd 859 (1955): "There is a clear distinction between 'profit' and 'wages', or a compensation for labor. Compensation for labor (wages) cannot be regarded as profit within the meaning of the law. The word 'profit', as ordinarily used, means the gain made upon any business or investment – a different thing altogether from the mere compensation for labor."

• Laureldale Cemetery Assoc. vs Matthews, 345 Pa. 230 (1946): "Reasonable compensation for labor or services rendered is not profit"

IRS Legal Provisions for Those who have no Social Security Numbers

For your Notice there is no Legal requirement to have a taxpayer identification number /social security number. Any attempts by anyone to force you to have one are considered discrimination.

The Federal Government and IRS lay out these laws if a person does not have a Social Security number.

26 U.S.C. 6109(a)(3) (Supp. 1992)"

The IRS regulation interpreting section 6109 provides:

"If he does not know the taxpayer identifying number of the other person, he shall request such number of the other person. A request should state that the identifying number is required to be furnished under the law. When the person filing the return, statement, or other document does not know the number of the other person, and has complied with the request provision of this paragraph, he shall sign an affidavit on the transmittal document forwarding such returns, statements, or other documents to the Internal Revenue Service so stating.."

Treas. Reg. 301.6109-1(c) (1991)

"The applicable IRS statute and regulation place a duty on the employer to request a taxpayer identifying number from the employee. If document must be filed and the employer has been unable to obtain the number but has made the request then the employer need only include as affidavit stating that the request was made."

The Government also avers that:

"In 1989, Internal Revenue Code Section 6676, 26 U.S.C. and 6676 (1989), set forth the penalties for failing to supply the IRS with identifying numbers as required by the code....a $50.00 penalty will be imposed for failure of an employer to provide an identifying number on any document filed with the IRS unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. The Treasury Regulation interpreting the Statute states:

Under Section 301.609-1(c) a payor is required to request the identifying number of the payee. If after such a request has been made, the payee does not furnish the payor with his identifying number, the penalty will not be assessed against the payor.

Your legal department can contact our Tribal Justice Council @ 1-773-891-5415

Or fax us 1-773-891-5428

If there has been a violation of rights due to discrimination we plan to prosecute to the fullest measure:

Thank you

We greet you in Peace

Form 56 (Rev. 12-2007)

Form W-4 (2011)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2011 expires February 15, 2012. See Pub. 605, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $500 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple job situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding, for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using

Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 919 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 919 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2011. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $190,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

E	Enter "1" if you will file as head of household on your tax return (see conditions under Head of household above)	E _____

See Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit, for more information. • If your total income will be less than $61,000 ($90,000 if married), enter "2" for each eligible child; then less "1" if you have three or more eligible children. • If your total income will be between $61,000 and $84,000 ($90,000 and $119,000 if married), enter "1" for each eligible child plus "1" additional if you have six or more eligible children	G _____
H	Add lines A through G and enter total here. (Note. This may be different from the number of exemptions you claim on your tax return.) Illinois Withholding Allowance Worksheet

General Information

Complete this worksheet to figure your total withholding allowances.

Everyone must complete Step 1.

Complete Step 2 if

- you (or your spouse) are age 65 or older or legally blind, or
- you wrote an amount on Line 4 of the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet for federal Form W-4.

If you have more than one job or your spouse works, you should figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim. Your withholding usually will be more accurate if you claim all of your allowances on the Form IL-W-4 for the highest-paying job and claim zero on all of your other IL-W-4 forms.

You may reduce the number of allowances or request that your employer withhold an additional amount from your pay, which may help avoid having too little tax withheld.

Step 1: Figure your basic personal allowances (including allowances for dependents)

Check all that apply:

- ☐ No one else can claim me as a dependent.
- ☐ I can claim my spouse as a dependent.

1 Write the total number of boxes you checked.

2 Write the number of dependents (other than you or your spouse) you will claim on your tax return.

3 Add Lines 1 and 2. Write the result. This is the total number of basic personal allowances to which you are entitled.

4 If you want to have additional Illinois Income Tax withheld from your pay, you may reduce the number of basic personal allowances or have an additional amount withheld. Write the total number of basic personal allowances you elect to claim on Line 4 and on Form IL-W-4, Line 1.

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

4 _____

Step 2: Figure your additional allowances

Check all that apply:

- ☐ I am 65 or older.
- ☐ I am legally blind.
- ☐ My spouse is 65 or older.
- ☐ My spouse is legally blind.

5 Write the total number of boxes you checked.

6 Write any amount that you reported on Line 4 of the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet for federal Form W-4.

7 Divide Line 6 by 1,000. Round to the nearest whole number. Write the result on Line 7.

8 Add Lines 5 and 7. Write the result. This is the total number of additional allowances to which you are entitled.

9 If you want to have additional Illinois Income Tax withheld from your pay, you may reduce the number of additional allowances or have an additional amount withheld. Write the total number of additional allowances you elect to claim on Line 9 and on Form IL-W-4, Line 2.

5 _____

6 _____

7 _____

8 _____

9 _____

Note: If you have non-wage income and you expect to owe Illinois Income Tax on that income, you may choose to have an additional amount withheld from your pay. On Line 3 of Form IL-W-4, write the additional amount you want your employer to withhold.

Cut here and give the certificate to your employer. Keep the top portion for your records.

Dear Hakeem Bey:

WHY ARE WE WRITING TO YOU?

We are releasing our previous withholding instructions, which specified a withholding rate and withholding allowances. We will direct your employer(s) listed below to honor your current Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, if valid. Your employer(s) will also be directed to honor any valid Form W-4 you submit in the future.

WHAT ACTION DO YOU NEED TO TAKE?

It is a legal requirement to have adequate withholding from wages and to file all tax returns timely and pay all taxes in full. Any future failures to file or full pay timely could result in subsequent withholding compliance lock-in letters being issued.

In order to meet the above requirement, you should submit a new Form W-4 to your employer(s) any time your personal or financial situation changes (for example, marriage, birth of child, or major change in wages).

WHERE CAN YOU FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION?

Additional information is available in Publication 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding? You can also find additional information on our website at www.irs.gov, keyword: topic 753.

WHAT IF YOU HAVE MORE QUESTIONS?

If you have any questions, you may contact the Withholding Compliance Unit by:

- Calling 1-866-791-0289 weekdays between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.; or
